The 7th Fukushima Vocal Ensemble Competition 2014

“Inspiring singing voices, Resonating to the true skies”

March 20th – March 23rd, 2014

Fukushima, Japan

The Fukushima Vocal Ensemble Competition is the biggest choral competition for small vocal ensemble groups (2-16 singers) in Japan. Every year we invite more than 100 top level choirs selected from all over Japan. And now the competition is open internationally to share the joy of singing with people from all around the world.

Fukushima is known as the “Kingdom of Choirs” in Japan, which has a big population of music fans and award-winning choirs. You are cordially invited to experience the fascinating atmosphere of our music cities, and let your singing voices ring out together under the sky, which a 19-century poet once described as the “True Sky.”

 - c. For the Grand Champion Competition, the overall duration of performance time from the beginning of the first piece until the end of the last piece (including time between songs) must not exceed 15 minutes.
 - d. Failure to comply with the above rules will result in disqualification.

- Order of Performance
- a. The order of performance in each category shall be determined by lottery, drawn by representatives from each choir on a specified date. Choirs that cannot attend the sortition shall leave the selection to the organizer.
 - b. The order of performance in Category III shall be sorted by each group, children's choirs and other choirs.
 - c. When a conductor or an accompanist performs in more than one choir, and their schedule in the venue is in conflict with others, the lottery will be held again to resolve the conflict.
 - d. The order of performance for the Grand Champion Competition shall be determined by lot, drawn by the organizer, and will be announced at a later date.

- Accompaniment
- The instruments and style of accompaniment shall be up to each competing choir.
 - A piano (Steinway & Sons), a cembalo (J.C.Neupert), a positive organ and a pipe organ (Marcussen & Sons) will be provided by the organizer. The pitch of the piano will be A=442Hz.
 - If the contestants use musical instruments other than the above, they are expected to carry their own instruments, and will be responsible for the required expenses.
 - If the contestants require a person to turn the pages of notes, each choir shall prepare for it.
- Judging and Evaluation
- The following judges will evaluate the competition.
Bob Chilcott (Composer), Keiichi Asai (Chorus Master), Keishi Ito (Chorus Master), Masahiro Sato (Conductor), Midori Takashima(Composer), Keizo Takahashi(Vocalist), Akane Nakanishi (Composer)
 - Each competition is evaluated according to a round system specified separately.
- Prizes and Awards
- The competition will be evaluated in each category, and Gold (Top 5 choirs in each category), Silver, Bronze or Excellence prizes will be awarded to every participating choir in each category.

Fukushima

Fukushima is located in the north-east region of Japan and is approximately 200km, 100min by express train from Tokyo. It is called the “Kingdom of Choirs” in Japan, which has a big population of music fans and award-winning choirs. Along with its unique music friendly culture, there you can find abundant natural beauty and traditional samurai culture, which is still being handed down over the generations. You can enjoy renowned hot spring resorts and historical samurai sites before/after the competition. Anyone looking for friendship with true music lovers and real experiences of Japan must not fail to visit Fukushima.

Thanks to the support and encouragement from all over the world, Japan has steadily recovered since the Great East Japan Earthquake in 2011. The Fukushima Vocal Ensemble Competition has also received hundreds of messages to encourage people in Fukushima. We will never forget the warm and heart-felt moments that we have shared with participants of the competition.

Now we are sure music has the power to get people together and bring about hope and encouragement. The Fukushima Vocal Ensemble Competition will keep going on to convey the joy of singing together.

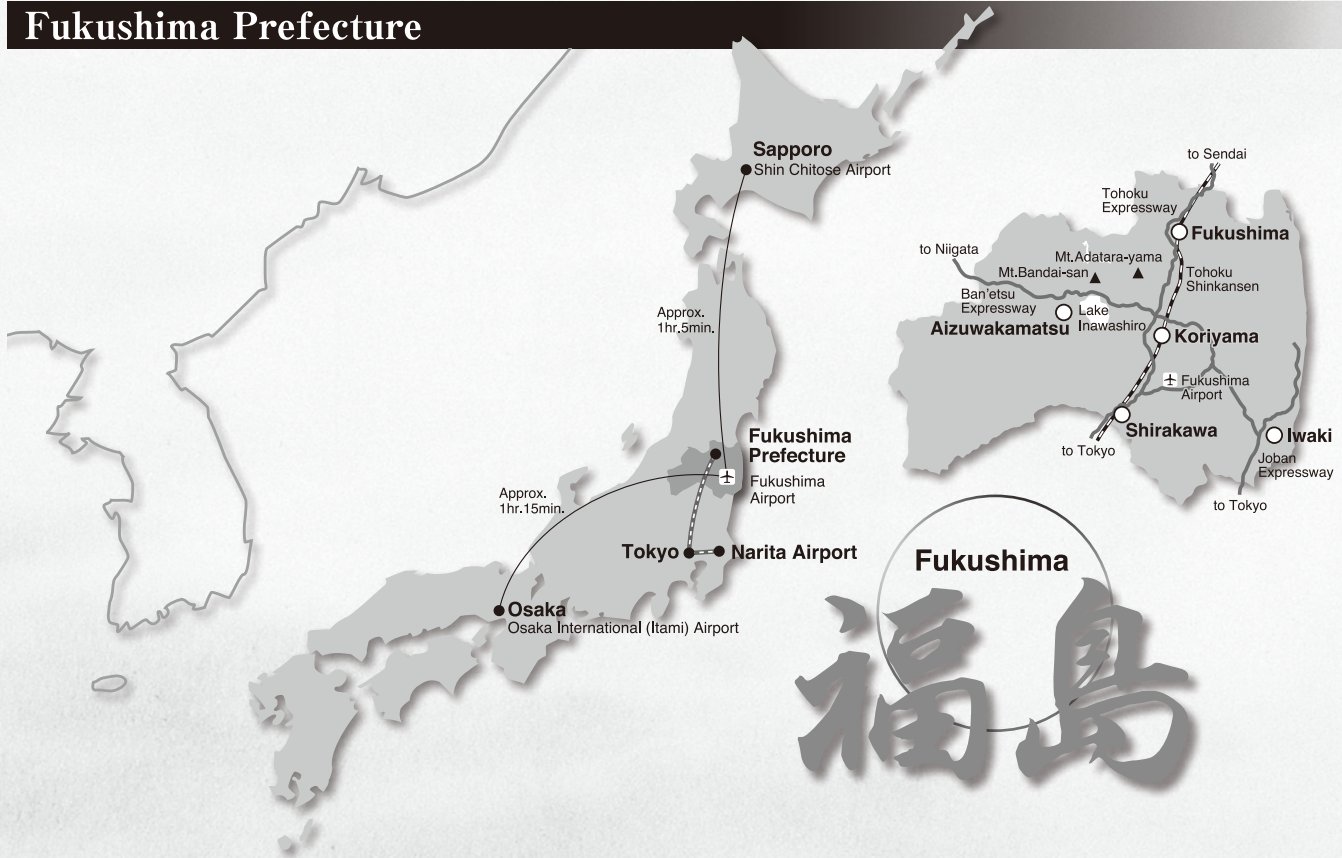

*The “city” of Fukushima is in the middle of the “prefecture” of Fukushima, and the Fukushima Music Hall is more than 60km away from the Fukushima Daiichi Plant. There is no restriction advised on Fukushima City. For more details, please refer to our website.
